with the great shout of greeting that met the young giants as they trotted out and frisked over the chalked green, for there was muscle and brawn that one would never look to the schoolyard for. Great, big fellows, whose downy cheeks were a startling surprise above their massive molds and towering frames.

One youth, named Graham, the pride of the Chicago team, is in truth a young Titan, tipping the scales at 240 pounds and carrying his great weight with the speed and friskiness of a young colt. Nor did he tower so far above his mates, for the average of the team is a trifle over 165 pounds.

Brooklyn Boys Lighter.
The Brooklyn boys, though a trifle lighter, looked every bit as formidable, and as the host of boy spectators looked on at there, their chosen heroes, there was no checking the effervescence of their spirits in any formed or rhythmic yell. They shouted, they screamed until their feeble voices broke, and then, red in the face, they gurgled hoarsely and waved their arms in boyish frenzy.

Nor was the dainty miss in her best frock and flaunting her chosen colors slow in joining in this delicious medley of sound, and when her delicate throat could gasp no longer she unobtrusively hugged the nearest schoolboy in an enthusiasm that would not down.

The victory of the Brooklyn High School over the "Poly Prep" by a score of 23 to 9 on Thanksgiving Day roused the hopes of their followers to a pitch that the sight of the great frames of the Westerners could not stifle. Throughout the season the High School boys have swept everything before them, playing every game with unflinching brilliancy. It is true that the Chicagoans have done likewise, and moreover outweigh their rivals. Nevertheless there was not an eastern boy that abated for a moment the enthusiasm of his cheer, and there was the victory of the Chicago team last year over the "Poly Prep" champions to balance and give added zest to the enthusiasm.

Brooklyn Boys First Out.
The Brooklyn boys were the first on the field and the Chicago line, the Westerners romped out, led by Graham, their 240-pound tackle, who is popularly and appropriately called "Tubby". The visiting eleven has a strong little negro who played right end.

FIRST HALF.
Senator Patrick H. McCarren carried out the football to "Tubby", who kicked off for Chicago to Brooklyn's 10-yard line. Brooklyn carried the ball to the center of the field. The visiting boys then battered their way down the field to Brooklyn's ten-yard line when the High School boys made a valiant stand. But the superior weight of the Westerners held and "Tubby" forced the ball back to the center of the field, and then by repeated assaults carried the sphere to Brooklyn's forty-yard line, where they lost the ball on a fumble.

Graham again kicked off for Chicago to Brooklyn's twenty-yard line. Brooklyn was forced to kick, as the home boys could do nothing with Chicago's line. The visitors rushed the ball back to the center of the field, and then by repeated assaults carried the sphere to Brooklyn's forty-yard line, where they lost the ball on a fumble.

Then the Westerners ripped and tore their way down the field and over the line for another touchdown. Detry carrying the ball, Tubby missed goal. SCORE—CHICAGO, 11; BROOKLYN, 0.

Tubby Scores Again.
The Trolley Dodgers kicked off. Steffens made a sensational run of 55 yards but was penalized twenty yards on tripping. The visitors kicked to centre of field and secured the ball on a fumble. Steffens ran 47 yards, the ball forward twenty yards. The boys from the West kept up their hammering at the opponent's line. Tubby finally hurled Detry over for another touchdown. Tubby missed goal. SCORE—CHICAGO, 16; BROOKLYN, 0.

Tubby Missed Once.
Chicago kicked off to Brooklyn's 10-yard line. A kick and fumble by Chicago gave them the ball on their 35-yard line. Brooklyn was forced to kick, and Steffens ran 47 yards, the ball forward twenty yards. The boys from the West kept up their hammering at the opponent's line. Tubby finally hurled Detry over for another touchdown. Tubby missed goal. SCORE—CHICAGO, 21; BROOKLYN, 0.

The Sixth, Oh My!
The Brooklyn boys kicked off once more it was the same old story. Hill, the Chicago full-back, working the sixth touchdown. He kicked goal. SCORE—CHICAGO, 27; BROOKLYN, 0.

Another kick-off and the crowd went wild when Tubby, the 240-pounder, made a thirty-five-yard run through the entire Brooklyn line. The Windy City boys pounded away until Pollard, the negro, was rushed over the line for the seventh touchdown. SCORE—CHICAGO, 33; BROOKLYN, 0.

The New Yorkers kicked off to Steffens, who ran the ball magnificently 100 yards for the eighth touchdown. Tubby kicked goal. SCORE—CHICAGO, 44; BROOKLYN, 0.

Chicago kicked off for a chance. Brooklyn lost the ball on a fumble. The coored boy made the ninth touchdown. No more. SCORE—CHICAGO, 50; BROOKLYN, 0.

In a few minutes more of play the tenth touchdown was made. No goal. SCORE—CHICAGO, 54; BROOKLYN, 0.

Then the eleventh touchdown. Goal kicked.

SECOND HALF.

Brooklyn kicked off. Zing Zing, Hill, of Chicago, raced 60 yards, for a touchdown. Goal kicked. SCORE—CHICAGO, 60; BROOKLYN, 0.

The Brooklyn boys took a chance. Chicago tried goal from field and made it from the 30-yard line. SCORE—CHICAGO, 66; BROOKLYN, 0.

Ding-a-ling. Steffens ran 7 yards for the thirteenth touchdown. No goal. SCORE—CHICAGO, 72; BROOKLYN, 0.

The Brooklyn boys took a splendid brace and worked the ball to Chicago's goal line, but they could not keep it up.

COLT SAILS TO TRY FOR DERBY

An American-bred yearling colt sails for England to-day on the steamship Minnehaha for the purpose of trying to win some of the classics of the English turf. J. S. McDonald is the owner of the colt, having bought it from E. H. Garrison, of the Manhattan Stable. McDonald thinks he has one of the best, if not really the best, colts available at this time.

As soon as the colt arrives in England he will be entered in all the English stakes for two-year-olds. The colt is a chestnut son of Russell and Brandelett and was purchased by the Manhattan Stable for $1,500. When purchased he was eligible for the Futurity and other metropolitan track classics.
